Get ready to take in some Christmas Magic this December at Frankenmuth. Frankenmuth makes you feel that you're in a true Bavarian village, complimented with the River Place Shops, with more than 30 boutiques and attractions. Find everything from fudge to Irish items, as well as a distillery and multiple gift shops. You'll be treated to a German Wine tasting, live entertainment, authentic German cuisine, while staying at the renown Bavarian Inn Lodge located across from the wooden covered bridge. You'll enjoy the wonderful Christmas displays throughout the city with a stop at the Silent Night Memorial Chapel and the Musical Tree. You can't visit Frankenmuth without visiting Bronner's CHRISTmas Wonderland, the biggest Christmas store in the world. Find ornaments, collectibles, trees, lights and much more as you wander through this gorgeously decorated holiday paradise, which is open year round. Frankenmuth offers so much in the way of Christmas activities. Optional activities on your own could include a Fantasy Carriage Ride. Another option would be the Frankenmuth Historical Museum or spend time at Lager Mill, a brew store and museum. Don't miss the glorious stained glass windows of St. Lorenz Lutheran Church, the area's oldest, which offers tours daily.
