RAILS TO RIDGES

$130.00

Ride the rails at the Halton County Radial Railway. It is a full-size operating electric railway and museum, featuring historic electric railcars operating on two kilometers of scenic track. It was formed in 1954 by a group of men who wanted to save Toronto Transit Commission streetcar 1326 from being sent to the scarp yard. Next, we will go to the Aberfoyle Mill for an included lunch. The Mill originally functioned as a grist mill, powered by the pond situated at the back of the building. In 1867 the Mill won a gold medal, for its oatmeal at the World's Fair in Paris. The Mill functioned until the late 1920s. In 1960 the Mill was purchased by the Owens family and after about 6 years of restoration, it was converted into one of the most unique restaurants in Canada. After the Mill we will head on down to Springridge Farms to enjoy a farm wagon ride, a fresh strawberry dessert, and a quart of strawberries for each to take home. The Springridge Farm bakery is famous for pies and tarts. It all began with Cherry Pies using cherries from the farm. Now, over 50 years later, their bakers are renowned for their Strawberry-Rhubarb, Apple, and Blueberry Pies too!

ART & WINE

$112.00

Art and wine, the perfect pairing! Tune into your creative side when we visit McMichael. The story of the McMichael Canadian Art Collection began in 1952, when Robert and Signe McMichael purchased ten acres of land in Kleinburg, Ontario. Their home was built on the land and resembled the Northern Canadian landscape which they loved. The McMichaels began to collect works of art by Tom Thomson and the Group of Seven, artists who drew inspiration from the natural landscape. In 1965, the McMichaels donated their collection, their home and their land to the province of Ontario. In July of 1966, the “McMichael Conservation Collection of Art” officially opened. Over the years, the collection has continued to grow and it is now comprised of more than 6,500 pieces of art. We will enjoy an included lunch at the McMichael Café and later visit the Magnotta Winery for a tour and tasting.

Is it really so hard to kill one little old lady? Based on one of the best-loved British films of all time, this comedy tour-de-force is set in post-World War II London where five oddball crooks pose as an amateur string quintet in order to rent a room from a little old lady. Albufeira is the largest and most energetic of all of the resort towns that line southern Portugal's beautiful Algarve coastline. Albufeira provides stunning beaches, a glorious climate, a vast selection of restaurants and a buzzing nightlife. There is so much to love about Albufeira and has transformed the once peaceful fishing village into the Algarve's most popular holiday destination. Within the charming and historic streets of the "Old Town" there are over one hundred different restaurants and bars, while the nightlife scene is vibrant and social. From your resort you can book many interesting day trips, including the historic and cultural towns of Silves, Faro and Loulé.
